

What is Justice?

For each of the following scenarios, decide whether it is "Justice" or an "Injustice", and explain why you think it is Justice or an Injustice. Your explanations should try to get to the heart of what Justice is. Don't just say, "because it was wrong", OR "because it was right", these answers are insufficient. Explain in thoughtful detail.

1. A woman is required by her employer to wear makeup (blush, powder, lipstick, and mascara) as part of the "appearance guidelines" of the company. She is fired for refusing to comply with the policy.

Justice or Injustice?

Explanation:

2. During a time of war, men can be drafted (forced) to go to battle (if the government says they have to), but women cannot be drafted.

Justice or Injustice?

Explanation:

3. Men's football programs at most major universities are given 10 times the amount of money given to women's basketball, volleyball, and lacrosse programs combined.

Justice or Injustice?

Explanation:

4. Convicted sex offenders must register with local police. Their names are available on the Internet, and police go door to door and notify immediate neighbors.

Justice or Injustice?

Explanation:

5. A woman is beaten by her husband repeatedly. She doesn't leave him, she just kills him. She is convicted of first degree murder and sent to prison for life.

Justice or Injustice?

Explanation:

6. A student with dyslexia (A learning disorder marked by impairment of the ability to recognize and comprehend written words) is given an unlimited amount of time to take university entrance exams, whereas "regular" students are given only 3 hours.

Justice or Injustice?

Explanation:

7. People in wheelchairs are given prime parking spots, reserved just for them, closest to the entrance of buildings.

Justice or Injustice?

Explanation:

8. Convicted mass murderers in Texas are put to death.

Justice or Injustice?

Explanation: